ICeP’09

The ICeP’09 International Conference on eCommerce and ePayments in Marrakech, Morocco in September 2009 organized by SIST/Educasphere and sponsored by JIBC has been an unqualified success. The participants contribution to the state of the art in the area of Internet Banking and Commerce has been quite impressive, the informal discussions vibrant, and the social part well organized and exciting.

The conference success was mainly due to proactive participation and guidance by its Moroccan organizers, M. Abdellatif Mazouz and Dr. Tariq Obaid, as well as by our Journal’s team that included JIBC contributing editor Prof. Jean-Michel Sahut and the Chief Editor Prof. Nikhil Agarwal. My wholehearted thanks to the above mentioned individuals and to all the other numerous participants who worked for months on organizing the conference and running the sessions!
JIBC plans to proceed in our conference partnership with SIST/EducaspHERE in the future. We also plan to sponsor other equally substantive conferences in Europe, SEA and Latin Americas, as the subject area of Internet Banking and Commerce deserves further academic and practical development. Prof. Nikhil Agarwal and myself will much appreciate any proposals from our readership in relation to organizing the future conferences in their geographic regions.

Again, I am asking each and every one of you, our readers and subscribers, to email JIBC to at least 3 of your colleagues, friends and discussion groups that you are participating at, and recommend that they also subscribe. Please share information about JIBC articles with the Internet community and suggest to us new ways to promote JIBC among academics and professionals from around the globe.

As well, I am challenging all the current and past authors and editors to email your own articles -- along with the rest of JIBC edition -- to at least 10 of your peers and colleagues in academia, government and industry. Make sure that they are well aware of your articles and the Journal of Internet Banking and Commerce. Recommend that they also subscribe to email editions. After all, we send it around just 3-4 times a year.

A special appeal to ecommerce/ebusiness students to pass a word about JIBC to your professors and classmates and, more important, to ask them to supply new articles and tell everybody to subscribe.

Please contact us with the suggestion of how to submit information on JIBC to other leading search engines and academic reference publications. Also, if you notice publications referring to JIBC articles, please let us know.

Let's spread the word!
